

Praktyczna Nauka Języka Angielskiego: Wypowiedź ustna i sluchanie

The aim of the course is to provide students with an opportunity to practise speaking in English. The format of the class will make it possible for everyone to express themselves in English every week in the form of one-minute speeches and in-class discussions. The teacher will also provide individualized feedback based on one-to-one interviews.

Another key component of the course is listening. Students will be exposed to a variety of materials in a number of accents (apart from standard British or American English, these include Scottish and Australian English).

Assessment will cover progress in speaking, the ability to structure one's speeches, and it will also feature a final vocabulary quiz component.

Teacher: dr Piotr Spyra

Time and venue: winter semester 2017/2018; Mondays, 5pm; room -25 (the course will not coincide with other L4B classes)

Course dedicated to: L4B second- and third-year students (2017/2018) only.

ECTS: 2 points

To sign up, please contact the teacher directly at piotr.spyra@wp.eu

Please note that if the course is full at the point when you inquire, there will still be a chance for a preliminary sign-up for an analogous course in the spring semester.